PRESENTING THE

1960

KERNEL

OXFORD

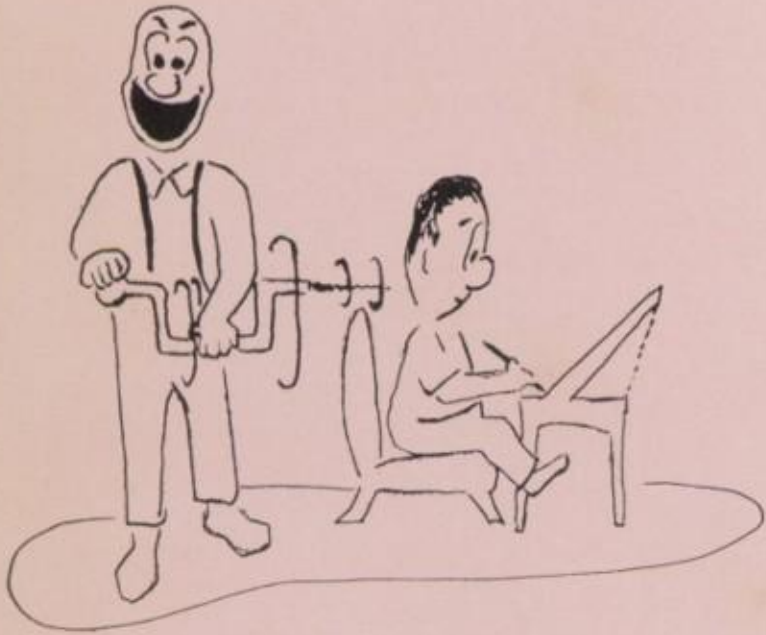

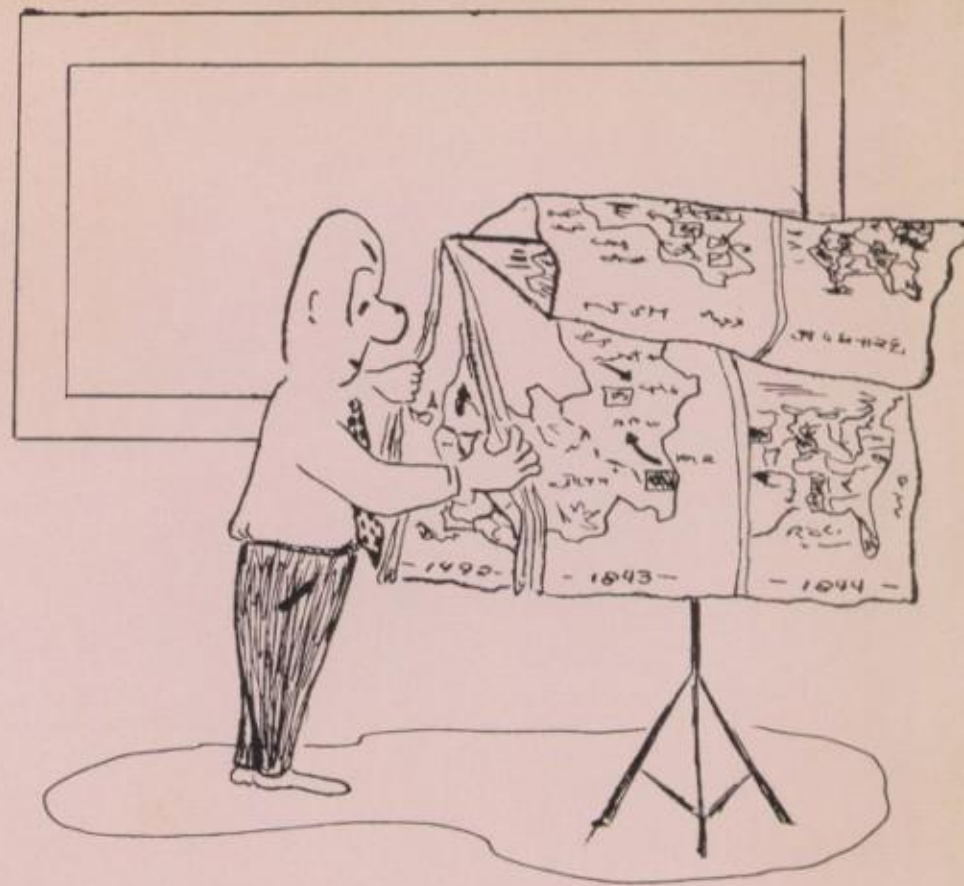

PENNSYLVANIA

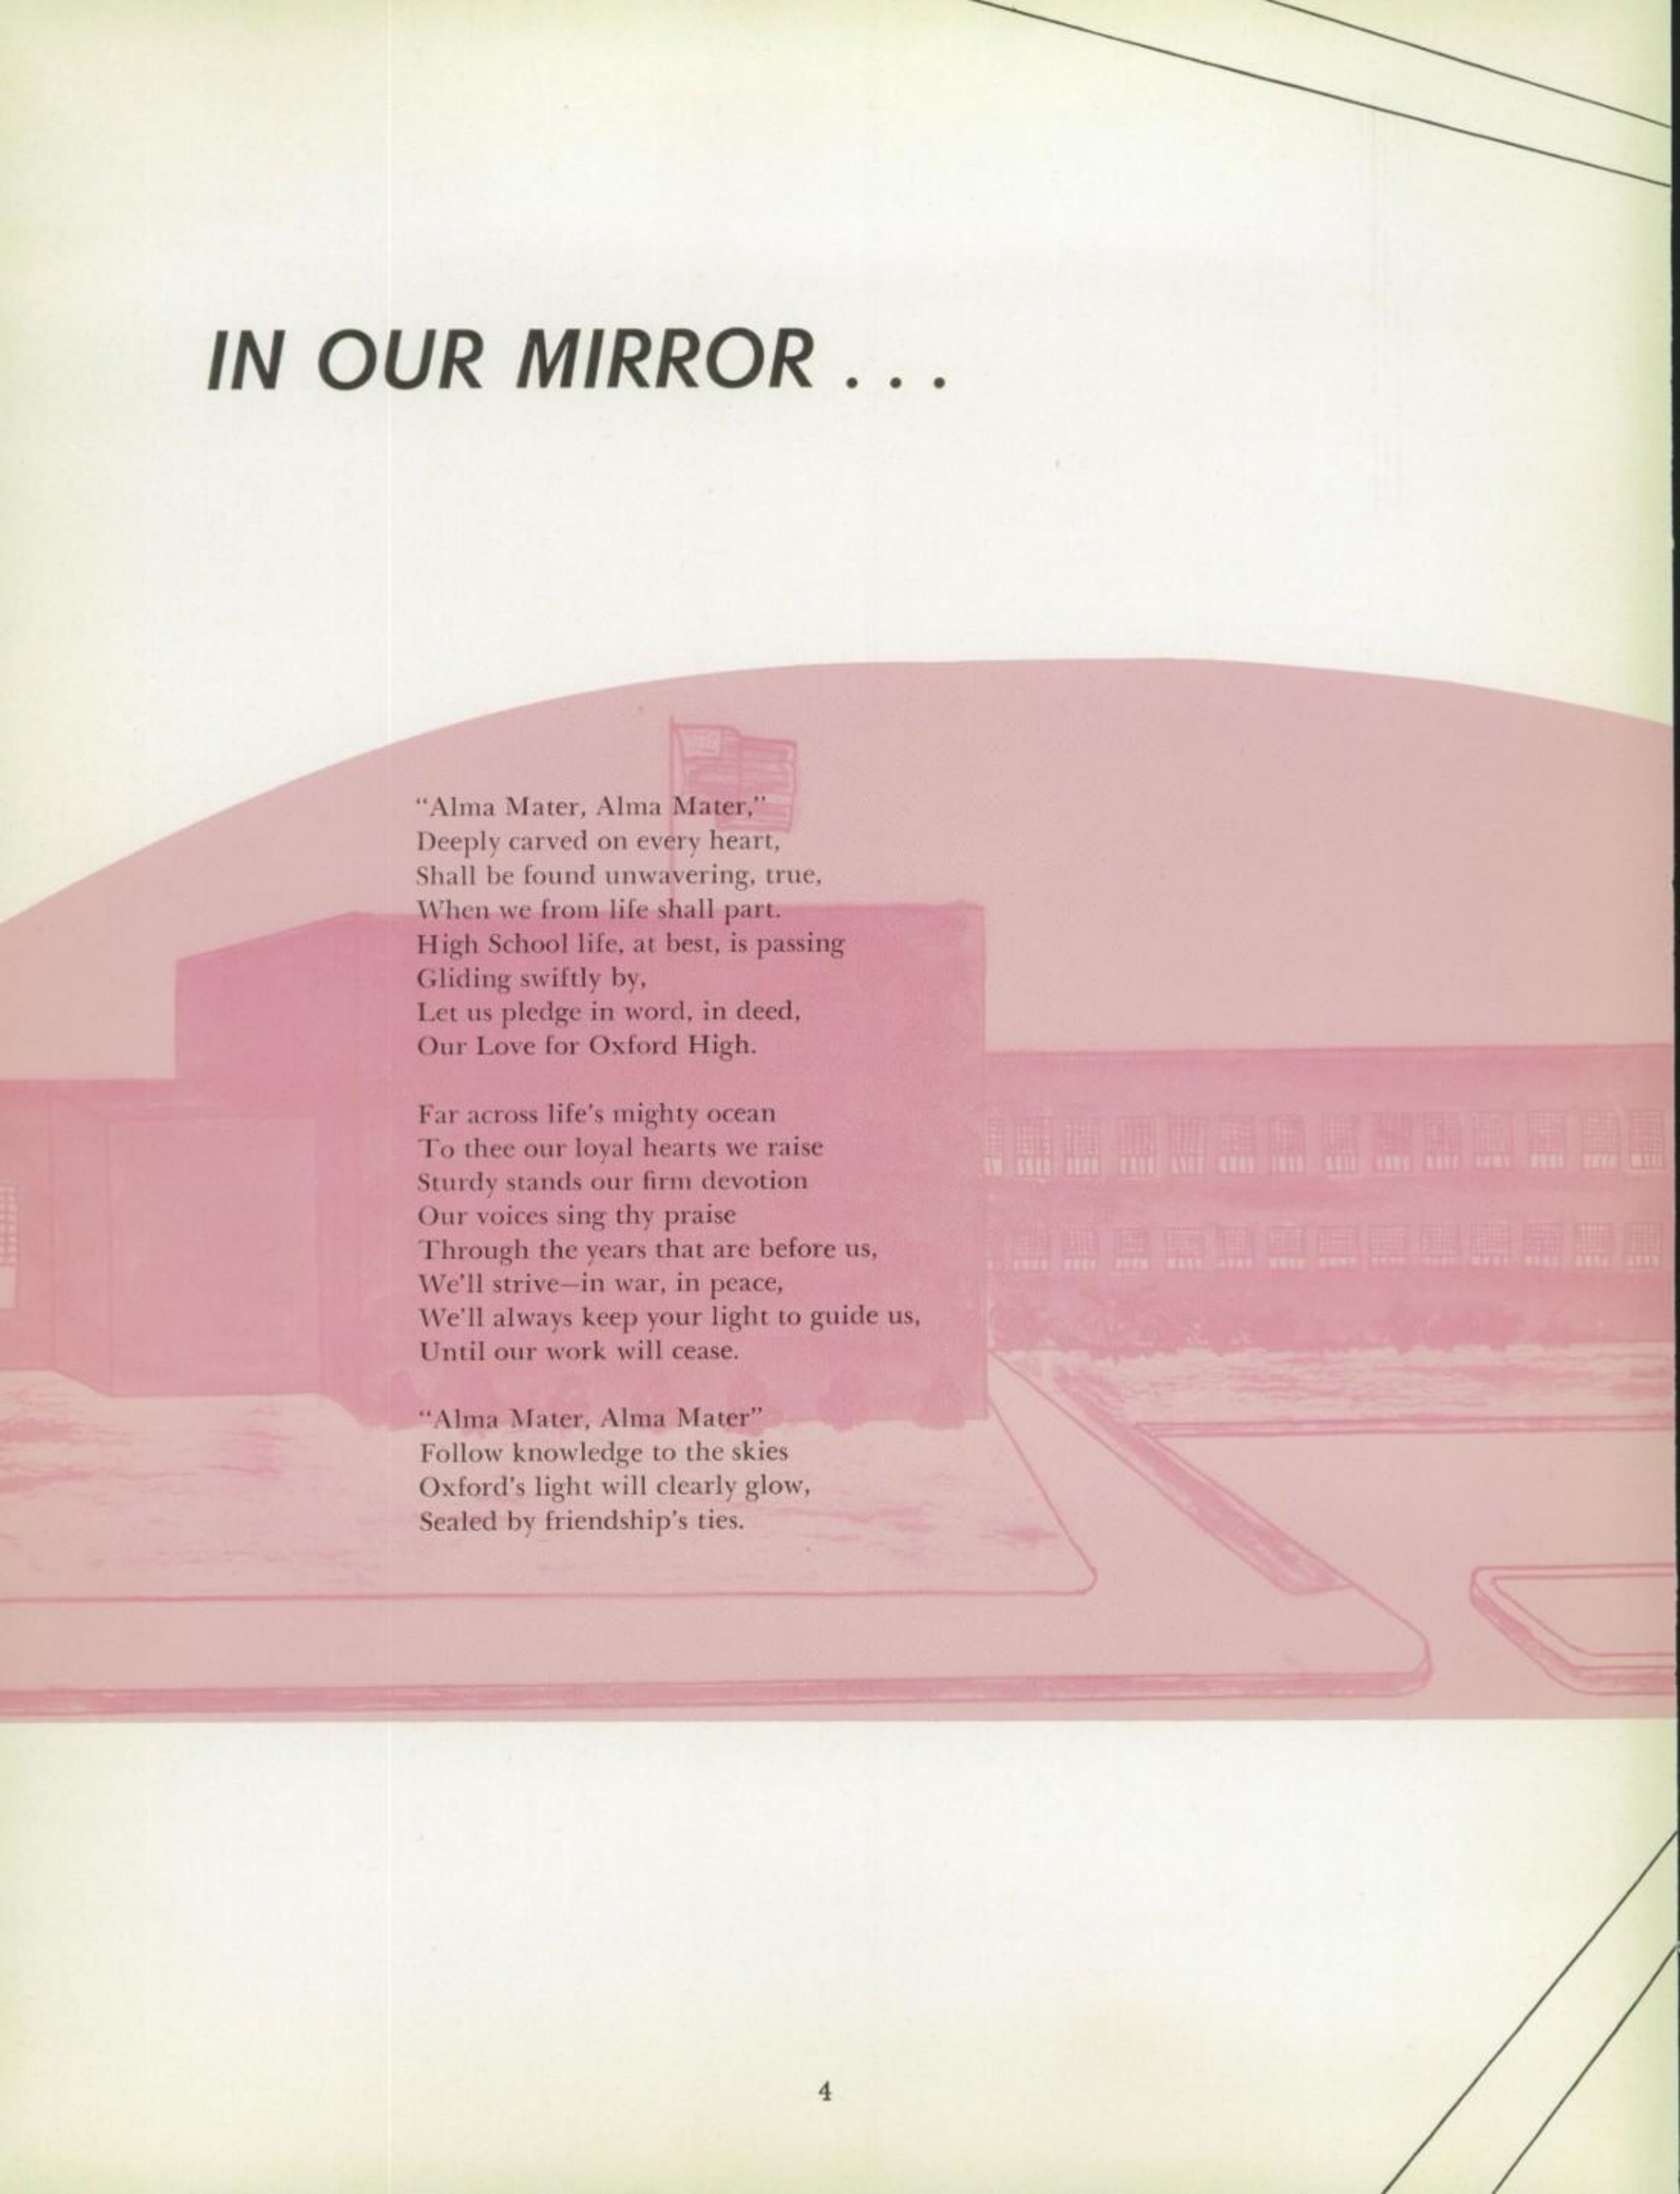

REFLECTIONS . . .

IN OUR MIRROR . . .

"Alma Mater, Alma Mater,"
Deeply carved on every heart,
Shall be found unwavering, true,
When we from life shall part.
High School life, at best, is passing
Gliding swiftly by,
Let us pledge in word, in deed,
Our Love for Oxford High.

Far across life's mighty ocean
To thee our loyal hearts we raise
Sturdy stands our firm devotion
Our voices sing thy praise
Through the years that are before us,
We'll strive—in war, in peace,
We'll always keep your light to guide us,
Until our work will cease.

"Alma Mater, Alma Mater"
Follow knowledge to the skies
Oxford's light will clearly glow,
Sealed by friendship's ties.

We are the light of our generation; some of us appear as bright candles, easily discerned, while others mirror these flames—nonetheless brightly.

Within these pages we have endeavored to present our personalities through a full portrayal of student life.

It remains our responsibility to reflect the knowledge we have acquired through this life unto the world.

SUPERVISING PRINCIPAL

But as the young man paused in his journey to consider the pathway ahead his heart bade him regard his earlier days.

And these thoughts stirred within him:

The teacher who walked part way with me gave me not of his wisdom but rather faith in knowledge. His tutoring was like that of planting seeds in tillable soil. His was the sowing; the nurture and harvest is mine.

The hard lessons bent the twig in the direction it should grow. The quiet lessons were a candle set aglow in the dark. The lessons beyond understanding were like pebbles dropped into still waters whose magnified ripples now lap at my shores. The firm lessons were granite blocks cemented into the foundation of my existence.

Because a teacher walked part way with me I know the comfort of many skills; the heart-warming calluses of honest toil; distant journeys through books; the pleasure of friendships; the joys of giving; the mysteries of creation; the limitations of self; and respect for my fellow-man.

Thus in his meditation an understanding began to unfold within him like a lotus of many petals. And the stirrings of his heart gave him new hope for sharing in the fullness of tomorrow.

Vernon H W Denenberg

HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

As a member of the graduating class of 1960, you are about to complete one phase of your education. If in passing through this period of time, you have developed the abilities you have been endowed with, if you have learned to take pride in doing things well, if you have learned to accept the responsibility for contributing to the improvement of society, then you have used this time wisely and well.

It has been frequently said that "Education is Growth." Growth in this sense has many possible meanings. It can well be defined as obtaining full knowledge and understanding; the acquisition of skills and competences; the use of knowledge and understanding. The term may also be defined as the development of proper attitudes and interests; as the development of acceptable social relationships; as the development of the moral, intellectual and emotional aspects of aesthetic qualities. Growth may also be defined as the development of the wide variety of means by which man communicates with man.

What does your school mean to you? If it means all these things, if your education so far has been real "growth," then truly you will have spent your time wisely and well.

Edward V. Topping.

ASSISTANT HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

OLIVER ALEXANDER

In addition to his teaching, he has assisted Mr. Topping with such office work as keeping records, handling school disciplinary problems and laying out class schedules. As our Athletic Director he has also contributed much to the development of our sports program.

GUIDANCE COUNSELOR

LAWRENCE F. NELSON

By organizing, administering and coordinating guidance programs, he has helped us to help ourselves. His advice to us has been sincere and has done much to aid us in appraising our aptitudes and abilities and in our making and carrying out intelligent educational and vocational plans.

ASSISTANT GUIDANCE COUNSELOR

EDWARD F. COSTELLO

Although his interest lies primarily with the junior high school, he has rendered individual counselling or group guidance services to whoever desired it. His time has been given freely to aid us in solving our personal, social and educational problems.

CLASS MOTTO

There are two ways of spreading light:
To be the candle or the mirror that reflects it.

—Edith Wharton

CLASS POEM

Life beckons, bids us onward,
Onward to the joy,
The love, the peace
That can be ours:
Onward to the sorrow,
The hate, the torment
That can also be ours;
For all of these are a part
Of life's unceasing movement.
It is for us to decide
Which will be triumphant.
If we seek to reason,
Seek to understand
The good and the evil which are,
Then truth and wisdom will shine upon us
And ignorance will fade away.

We, though yet young,
Have known a portion of life's offering,
And have seen no cause to fear.
Let us rely upon experience
And upon that of our friends.
Let us rely upon our education,
Upon the ideals offered us.
Let us seek an understanding
Within ourselves;
Then peace with our fellowmen will follow.

Beauty and song in Amazonia

The Fashion show

The senior chorus this year presented an unusual operetta-type show. It was a loose confederation of eighteen scenes in which Larry Ford searched for a beauty queen. His quest led him to the land of Amazonia, to Moronia College, to haunted houses and the backhill country, always seeking a girl to fill the bill.

SENIOR PLAY

In this age of rockets, the Class of 1960, under the direction of Mrs. Wilde, met the growing enthusiasm concerning interplanetary travel by presenting "The Girl From Outer Space."

Zelda, the visitor from the planet Abacadabra, invades earth for the purpose of collecting male specimens to take back to her queen. Although she appears to have the upper hand for awhile, the ingenuity of earth women finally foils her plans.

"We would die in the cause of science!"

"Oh, Sam, your kiss is s-s-s-o-o-o-o romantic!"

"C'mon, Queen Cat, let's jive!"

SPORTS

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Each fall four students are elected by the senior class to serve as officers of the A.A., the constituents of this organization being the student themselves. The officers assist the athletic department in matters relative to games, tag days and dances.

MASCOT

Wearing the new costume designed by the Student Council, our mascot attends all the games and occasionally takes part in the cheers.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

For the first time we have a regular Junior Varsity cheering squad. These ninth and tenth grade girls have planned some new cheers and are working towards obtaining uniforms.

JUNIOR VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

Our Senior Varsity cheerleaders are seen here wearing their new maroon and white uniforms. In addition to cheering at all the games, these girls have organized the Pep Rallies in conjunction with the A.A. officers.

SOCCER

Coached by Salvatore Esposito and Raymond Hull, the Hornets played a fair season, finishing fifth in the league with two wins, one tie and seven losses. High scorer was our foreign exchange student Cecil Griffiths with five goals; second, Larry Brown with three; Captain Bill Stevenson and Butch McIntyre tied with two.

Following a vigorous struggle, and much to the chagrin of the underclassmen, the seniors took the J. Marshall Thompson trophy after winning the Third Annual Old Shoe Game 3-2 in overtime.

Coaches: Raymond Hull, Salvatore Esposito
Manager: Dave Cannell

Keep off! That's my ball!

CROSS COUNTRY

Led by Captain Nelson Prange, the breaker of many school track records, our cross-country team gave an impressive performance. The underclassmen showed promise of developing into fine distance runners next year. Mr. Shellenberger, our coach, is already planning for another stirring season.

All right, boys! I've got it!

Look out, Cecil! I'm coming up!

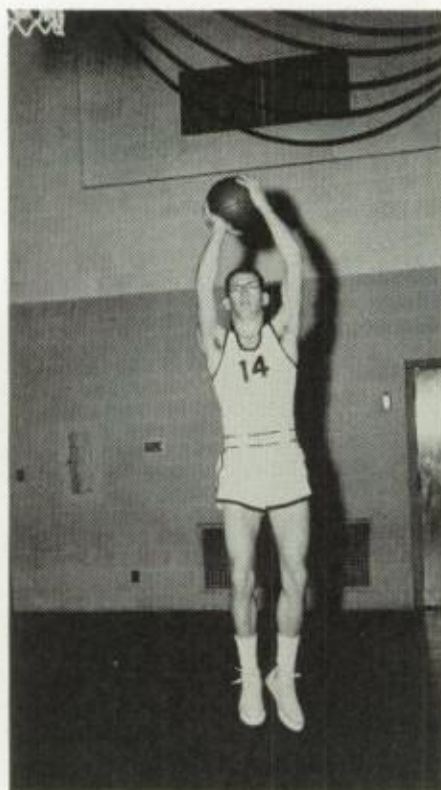

BOYS' JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

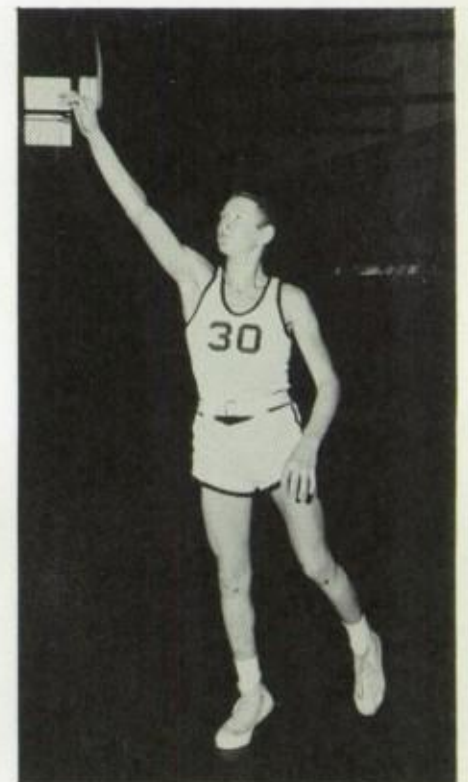

Junior varsity stole the show this season; their fine playing and co-operation enabled them to finish second in the League with a five to three record.

HOCKEY

Enthusiasm was the motto of the hockey teams this season. The junior varsity played hard and gave a fine performance; but, due to inexperience, their record did not match that of the varsity team.
